

Desperate Longings

There are so many needs, so many priorities that the path is painful.
Some things simply cannot be done right away. A reflection on some Of these concerns. William Mather May 2003

People in need
Desperate longing in eyes
For sponsorship
For children's schooling
For further education
For hospital bills
For materials
For the school roof
For an agricultural training centre
For rebuilding the CMS
mission centre
For needs here
For needs there
And each a priority

Got to take them
one by one
Not say yes or no
But listen and pray
Wait and consult
And only then decide
