

So Little – So Much

*By William Mather: Kajo Keji Diocese, Southern Sudan
May 2003*

A suffering people
So much pain
So much agony
So many families split up
So many congregations scattered
So many still in exile
So many longing for peace
So many visions and dreams
So many hopes
So few people here
So few materials
So much to be done
So little money – yet
So much faith
So much love